Each January, Fourth Degree Knights of Rome's politically active Knights of Columbus lead the SC Citizens for Life [SC chapter of Vatican - proxy NRL] March for "Life" [sic - incrementalists, regulating child-murder by "abortion", instead of ESTABLISHING JUSTICE according to the Bible by means of Personhood or other Abolition legislation] to the SC State House, the flags of the Knights' color guard including the yellow and white flag of Rome's Vatican City State, with the Papal Tiara (crown) and crossed keys.

Emblem of the Knights of Columbus

Emblem of the order

[Excerpt, emphasis added]

Mounted on the shield are three objects: a fasces; an anchor; and a dagger. In ancient Rome, the fasces was carried before magistrates as an emblem of authority. The order uses it as "symbolic of authority which must exist in any tightly-bonded and efficiently operating organization".

Fasces

[Excerpts, edited, emphasis added]

Fasces is a bound bundle of wooden rods, sometimes including an axe with its blade emerging. The fasces had its origin in the Etruscan civilization and was passed on to ancient Rome, where it symbolized a magistrate's power and jurisdiction.

The image has survived in the modern world as a representation of magisterial or collective power, law and governance. The fasces frequently occurs as a charge in heraldry: it is present on the reverse of the US Mercury dime coin and behind the podium in the United States House of Representatives; and it was the origin of the name of the National Fascist Party in Italy (from which the term fascism is derived).

During the first half of the twentieth century both the fasces and the swastika (each symbol having its own unique ancient religious and mythological associations) became heavily identified with the authoritarian /fascist political movements of Adolf Hitler and Benito Mussolini. During this period the swastika became deeply stigmatized, but the fasces did not undergo a similar process.

[Excerpts, emphasis, comments added]

Hundreds braved the cold to march and rally for life, and a newly ordained priest urged participants to be 'Catholic superheroes' and fight for those in need.

COLUMBIA The annual tradition of spending an entire weekend advocating for life and an end to abortion drew large crowds to the capital city on Jan. 11-12.

Participants of all ages engaged in a variety of events, but one of the highlights of the 46th Stand Up for Life event was the march through the streets of Columbia and a rally congregated at the Statehouse. The march is the best known pro-life event in the state and has been going on since Roe v. Wade became law in 1973.

[Roman] Catholics were some of the most visible participants in the march, with the Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus leading the procession and hundreds of youth standing on the Statehouse steps holding pro-life banners and signs.

Miscellany/Doug Deas:
Msgr. James LeBlanc, pastor of Transfiguration [Roman Catholic] Church, delivers a rallying speech at the capital.

The keynote speaker was Carol Tobias, president of the [Vatican - proxy] National Right to Life Committee. Based in New Mexico, she is a member of the National Right to Life Committee board of directors and was its political director from 1991 to 2005.

Tobias congratulated the participants for being willing to take a public stand against abortion and other threats to human life. She cited statistics that show the number of abortions nationwide have fallen from an all-time high in 1990 to about 900,000 nationwide still a tragic number but evidence of what can be done by those who persist in fighting for life. She also praised the 64 percent drop in the number of abortions in South Carolina, which peaked at 14,000 and had fallen to 5,000 in 2017.

continued...

After the march, about 600 Catholic youth and adults attended their annual rally at the Township Auditorium. The event is sponsored by the diocesan offices of Youth Ministry and Family Life.

Father Rhett Williams, parochial vicar at St. Mary Magdalene Church in Simpsonville, celebrated Mass and offered a moving talk about the impact that each person can have in promoting human life and dignity.

He described the immense popularity in recent years of movies based on Marvel and DC superheroes. He said heroes are special not only because they have superpowers, but because they use those powers to save others and promote what is right.

“Each of us is a Catholic super hero,” he said. “Everything you say and do has the ability to change someone’s life ... all it takes is a little bit of faith to do the right thing. We are taught to love His truth and to fight for those who can’t defend themselves.”

More than 500 people also attended the annual “Proudly [sic] Pro-Life Banquet” held Jan. 11 at Seawell’s in Columbia.

During this dinner, state legislators and others active in the pro-life cause from around the state and nation honored Holly Gatling, who is marking her 25th anniversary as executive director of South Carolina Citizens for Life.

Excerpts [emphasis added]:

"In the long war on the truth, the most formidable, relentless and deceptive enemy has been Roman Catholicism. It is an apostate, corrupt, heretical, false Christianity, it is a front for the kingdom of Satan. The true church of the Lord Jesus Christ has always understood this. And even through the Dark Ages from 400 to 1500, prior to the Reformation, genuine Christian believers set themselves apart from that system, and were brutally punished and executed for their rejection of that system."

"The Westminster Confession was written in 1647, the Westminster Confession, the Confession of the Reformers says, "There is no other head of the church but the Lord Jesus Christ, nor can the Pope of Rome in any sense be head thereof, but is that Antichrist, that man of sin and son of perdition that exalted himself in the church against Christ and all that is called God."

[Note: Unfortunately John MacArthur did not use either the King James Bible or the 1599 Geneva Bible, the best generally available English renderings of the Traditional Text, in quoting Scriptures within his message.]

by Dr. J A Wylie, Protestant minister, Free Church of Scotland, 1888

52 pages

Preface - "We conclude, therefore, that if Jesus of Nazareth be the Christ, the Roman Papacy is the Antichrist."

Chapter XIV - "The Roman Church has made it the solemn duty of all her members to destroy all Protestants when they are able to do so without danger to themselves."

Chapter XV - "Antichrist ... could "sit," that is, establish himself and exercise jurisdiction, nowhere but in the professedly Christian Church."

Chapter XVI - "Everything that Popery touches it converts into sin."

[e.g., Popery's ecumenical and legislatively incrementalist perversion of the "Pro-Life Movement"]

Chapter XVIII- "We do not hesitate to say, that we have nearly as full and convincing evidence that the Roman Papacy is the Antichrist, as we have that Jesus of Nazareth is the Christ."
